

Alexandra E. Patterson

Associate

T 202.898.5810

Alexandra Patterson practices in the firm's Complex Litigation, Pharmaceutical & Medical Device, and Products Liability & Toxic Torts groups. Her responsibilities include, but are not limited to, complex legal research, deposition preparation, drafting deposition outlines, and analyzing discovery documents for the firm's litigation matters. She is also involved in a pro bono matter for Lawyers for Civil Justice.

Prior to joining the firm, Ally previously served as a Legal Intern/Integrity Officer at the U.S. General Services Administration and as a Parliamentary Intern to the former Member of Parliament, Dr. Lisa Cameron, in the British House of Commons.

Ally graduated from the George Washington University Law School with honors. While there, she was an associate member of The George Washington International Law Review, a Dean's Fellow for the GW Fundamentals of Lawyering Program, a legal research and writing fellow for the GW Law Writing Center, and a teaching assistant for various subjects. She also received the Pro Bono Gold Recognition award for completing over 250 hours of pro bono work. Ally is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and received a Bachelor of Arts, summa cum laude, in Politics and History with a minor in Philosophy from The Catholic University of America. She was a member of the firm's 2023 Summer Associate class.

Ally unwinds from the rigors of law by taking her dog Zeppelin on hikes in the DMV area or by attending Soul Cycle classes with family or friends. As a self-proclaimed condiment connoisseur, you might also find Ally experimenting with hot sauces and other condiments she collects from her world travels.

Services

Complex Litigation
Pharmaceutical & Medical Device
Products Liability & Toxic Torts

Education

George Washington University Law School (J.D., 2024, with honors)

The Catholic University of America (B.A., 2020, summa cum laude)

Admissions

District of Columbia