Anna Kutbay practices complex litigation defense in pharmaceutical, products liability, and toxic tort matters. Her responsibilities include drafting motions and deposition outlines, conducting legal research, and analyzing discovery documents.

Prior to joining the firm, Anna served as a student attorney in the Health Justice Alliance Law Clinic, where she represented clients in housing conditions and public benefits matters, drafted and filed motions for remediation, and conducted client interviews. She also worked as a legal extern at Legal Aid DC, where she drafted motions and reasonable accommodation requests. As a legal extern at Planned Parenthood Federation of America, Anna wrote memoranda analyzing legal precedent and comparing state and federal litigation strategies.

Anna earned her J.D., cum laude, from Georgetown Law, where she was an executive editor of The Georgetown Law Journal and a member of the Trial Advocacy team. She was a CALI Award recipient and received the Dean's Certificate for Outstanding Service. She was a member of the firm's 2024 Summer Associate class.

Anna graduated from The University of Alabama with a M.A. in economics and a B.A., summa cum laude, in political science and economics.
